

Michelle Sanders

GRANT AND SCHOLARSHIP DIRECTOR

Michelle L. Sanders, a 28-year resident of Las Vegas, Nevada, is the Grant & Scholarship Director for The Rogers Foundation. Originally from Richmond, Virginia, she began her education through Virginia Commonwealth University and is currently continuing her education at Arizona State University in pursuit of a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Organizational Leadership. Michelle has worked for Intermountain West Communications Company (IWCC) for the past 19 years. She has served in many positions for IWCC throughout the years, including working as a General Manager for the Talk Radio station and as an Accounts Payable Manager. During her tenure with IWCC, she has worked within the nonprofit community handling many of the philanthropic endeavors for the Rogers family. Michelle has a strong sense of pride and commitment to the Las Vegas community and hopes to apply these qualities through involvement with The Rogers Foundation with her inherent appreciation for nonprofits and the work they do to improve the lives of others.

True success should not be measured by wealth or power.
It should be measured by how you use the resources available to you to make a difference in this world.
